

Tuesday, July 29, 2008 - 10:52 AM EDT

Global Lead adds Jazz Impact to repertoire

Business Courier of Cincinnati

Global Lead LLC is jazzing up its training offerings via a partnership with Jazz Impact, to teach teamwork through music.

Jazz Impact, led by Minneapolis bass player Michael Gold, helps clients build collaborative teams in the same way a jazz ensemble creates music, according to a news release.

“Immersion learning is a new dimension of our diversity and inclusion programs and an integral part of our training,” said Vincent Brown, co-founder and principal partner of Global Lead. “Jazz Impact’s sessions are a perfect fit, taking our training principles to music and getting our clients literally on their feet.”

Global Lead, with offices in Cincinnati, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Atlanta and Bristol, United Kingdom, is a diversity and inclusion-focused management consulting firm.